I am : _____        Period: _____        Date: _____

1.     What has been the largest motivating factor in the creation of codes?

2.     How many different elements are necessary to code a message and what are they?

3.     How many different elements are necessary to decode a message and what are they?

4.     Name two times that codes and code breaking have played an important role in history and describe the role. Why was it so important?

5.     How do you use codes and decoding in your daily life? Please explain to the best of your ability.