If you were "driving" towards this topic, point to the picture (or describe a better one) that best describes your "windshield" as you look at this new piece of learning.

Next...Describe the road you drove on to get there...